

Wabash Heritage Trail Signs Proposal

(May 8, 2012)

Four (4) 24" x 36" interpretive panels, with orientation insets, for horizontal mount, (mounting frames to be provided and signs installed by WLP R):

1. Happy Hollow Park, near WHT spur to Rose St. (new)
2. Fishtail Dance sculpture trailside park (revised design)
3. Tapawingo Park, WHT (Brown St.) Overlook (revised design)
4. Tapawingo Park, Margerum Fountain (Main St. Bridge) (revised design)

A new interpretive panel about the wastewater treatment plant (already completed by the WWTU) will be installed along the trail by the plant to explain "what it is." It is similar to the other interpretive panels.

Eleven (11) 48" x 36" (with an option for the size to be 36" x 24") trailhead signs, with orientation information, for vertical mount, with aluminum colonial mounting posts with base plates provided (signs to be installed by WLPR):

1. Happy Hollow Park, Indian Trail Dr. entry
2. Happy Hollow Park, north parking area, near shelter #4.
3. Happy Hollow Park, playground parking area, near shelters #1 & #2
4. Happy Hollow Park, Rose St. entrance
5. Happy Hollow Park south (new) parking area, near new shelter
6. Fishtail Dance sculpture trailside park
7. Tapawingo Park, parking lot area
8. Tapawingo Park, Margerum Fountain area
9. Tapawingo Park, State St. trailside park
10. South end of Tapawingo Dr., at South River Rd.
11. South River Rd., WHT entry
